Principal/ Lead Test Engineer (f/m/d)

Start today as a Lead Software Test Engineer for a brighter future. We are looking for a suitable candidate to support one of our clients in the field of Quality Assurance in Berlin. You will stand as a contributor to one of our client's international and cross-functional agile teams and drive the testing strategy throughout. With over 12,000 employees, our client is one of the world's largest providers in its sector and the market leader in Germany and in the Top 5 worldwide.

Demanding jobs await you in an innovative and international work environment. Do you have high self-motivation and commitment? Then apply today for our job offer!

Your responsibilities:

- Use appropriate tools and techniques to drive our client's future development (different technology stacks)
- Push along the client's testing strategy (therefore engaging with the wider testing community internally to share knowledge etc.)
- Continuously improving the quality of the client's solution delivery
- Standing as a mentor for other software testing engineers across teams, if need be

What we are looking for:

- Good to expert level understanding of CI principles
- Experience in designing and architecting solutions for performance testing, component level testing, stubbing and monitoring
- You are able to spot shortcomings (tooling) and to enhance the level of automation (through improved tooling)
- Good to expert level knowledge of e.g. Java, .NET (therefore the ability to familiarize yourself with other/new technologies with no issues)
- Experience in using testing tools at all levels in the testing pyramid and in testing data pipelines transforming raw data into cleaned/aggregated data
- Knowledge of the Application Lifecycle Management (including tooling, programming/scripting languages etc)
- Experience in building applications (cloud services), using non-functional test tools such as J-meter, Blazemeter etc, working with Git and Linux & Windows for software development desirable

Location: Berlin
